

NINTENDO ANNOUNCES ITS SUMMER SOFTWARE LINE UP

May 2006 - This summer will be a great one for video game fans as Nintendo unveils an exciting and innovative software line up. Whatever your taste in games there will be something here for you. From first person shooters to brain teasing puzzle games, Nintendo's range of highly innovative software will challenge the way in which you play, appealing to both gamers and non-gamers alike.

Nintendo DS fans will be delighted by a plethora of offerings to keep their stylus busy including, Metroid Prime Hunters, Dr Kawashima's Brain Training: How old is your brain? and New SUPER MARIO BROS. Nintendo GameCube owners will be kept busy this summer with new games including Chibi-Robo, Harvest Moon: Magical Melody, Super Monkey Ball Adventure (Sega), Over the Hedge (Activision) and Disney/Pixar's Cars (THQ). Game Boy Advance owners needn't feel left out with dozens of great games launching for the system including Final Fantasy IV Advance, X-Men 3 (Activision), Alex Rider Stormbreaker (THQ) and Street Racing Syndicate (Zoo Digital).

On top of all of this, gamers will be treated to dozens more third-party games for all three consoles, which are still yet to be announced.
